

COSTUME

The traditional costume of the kannadigas, the women folk is the saree. Ilakal Saree and Mysore silk are quite famous. The draping of the sari varies depending on the area like Kodagu, North and South Karnataka and Karavali. Davani is a traditional costume of the young females. The traditional clothing for the men folk is the Dhoti, known as Panche. Mysore Peta is the traditional headgear of southern Karnataka, while the pagadi or pataga which looks like a turban is preferred in the northern areas of the state. Of course the costume the urban Kannadigas varies which includes all the modern outfits.

